<sup>1</sup> In Louisiana, the Congressional Election of November 2, 2004, was an open (nonpartisan) primary. To be elected, candidates had to receive a majority of the vote. A run-off election was scheduled for December 4, 2004, for seats for which no candidate received the requisite majority (see Foster v. Love, 522 U.S. 67). The votes reported for the 3d and the 7th Congressional Districts are the results of run-off elections.

<sup>2</sup> Unopposed.
